FOREWORD

Teaching is one of the most demanding, stimulating, and rewarding of all professions. The student teaching experience is one that provides opportunities to participate in the major activities required of teachers today: to plan, implement, and evaluate effective learning procedures and activities; to select and use instructional materials that facilitate learning; to develop the techniques of self-evaluation; to adapt to the social and professional framework of the educational institution; and to assume the role of the teacher in the community.

Introduction

The purpose of the student teaching handbook is to be a reference to everyone involved in the student teaching experience – teacher candidates, cooperating teachers, and University Supervisors. We have designed this handbook to provide relevant information during this important phase in your program. We are so fortunate at Bloomsburg University to have established such wonderful partnerships with the PreKindergarten-12 schools and the professional education community. We hope that this document provides you with answers and tips to make the supervision of our students easier.

For the teacher candidate, the student teaching semester will be one of challenges and rewards. This will be a semester filled with many new experiences in which you will encounter delight as well as stress. Your first priority is to take care of yourself so that you remain healthy all semester.

To the cooperating teachers and supervisors of student teaching, I would like to thank you for your dedication to this final chapter for our students at Bloomsburg University.

I would like to thank the members of the committee for their commitment and dedication in compiling this document. The Teacher Education Program, the students, faculty members, and PK-12 educators will benefit from their hard work. Congratulations on reaching this level in your program, and I wish you success on your future endeavors.

Respectfully,

Elizabeth K. Mauch, Ph.D.

Introduction and Framework

PHILOSOPHY

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania is committed to the preparation of teachers of the highest quality. The qualities expected of teacher candidates must be developed through cooperation among the teacher candidate, cooperating teacher, University Supervisor, and school administrator.

The emphasis of the student teaching experience is on developing broadly educated individuals who are knowledgeable in areas of specialization and multiculturalism, skilled in pedagogy, technologically proficient, and cognizant of learners’ needs.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of Bloomsburg University’s College of Education is (1) to prepare ethical educational professionals who are empowered to assess the development and facilitate the growth of all learners to succeed and lead in our diverse and technologically complex world; and (2) to serve as a resource to the region. ¹

OBJECTIVES OF STUDENT TEACHING

The student teaching program is a planned and carefully supervised learning experience within an educational environment. This experience provides students with opportunities to integrate the principles, theories, and methods developed in University classes. The insights gathered in the field will assist in developing a philosophy of education and a personal teaching style based on self-reflection and feedback from students, cooperating teachers, and the University Supervisor. The ten most important objectives of student teaching are:

1. To provide opportunities to become self-directed.
2. To provide opportunities for reflecting upon and assessing a philosophy of education.
3. To provide experiences under full-time supervision for the teacher candidate to direct teaching-learning situations.
4. To provide experiences in using methods, techniques, and instructional materials and technologies that prove to be the most effective in educational settings.
5. To provide opportunities for developing desirable professional interests, attitudes, ideas, and techniques of teaching through self-evaluation.
6. To provide feedback for the teacher candidate through continuous evaluation by the cooperating teacher and University Supervisor.
7. To provide experiences for understanding of the actual working conditions of a public school, intermediate unit, and/or approved educational setting. These experiences will include acquaintance with educational policies, regulations, committees, records, reports, and other mechanical aspects of the educational facilities.

8. To provide experiences for observation and participation in extra-curricular activities.
9. To provide opportunities for the teacher candidate to become aware of the importance of human relations as they apply to students, faculty, parents, and members of the community at large.
10. To provide experiences to the teacher candidate in recognition of and fostering of individual and cultural differences found among students.

The Bloomsburg University’s Director of the Office of Field Experiences is responsible for placement of teacher candidates. Permission from the University Supervisor, Department Chairperson, and Director of Field Experiences is necessary for any change in placement.
Overview

A conceptual framework enables a unit to articulate and share with its professional community its way of seeing, thinking and being. This way of seeing, thinking and being encapsulates the sense of the unit across all unit programs. In addition, it sets forth the operational manner of the unit regarding what candidates should know (content knowledge) and be able to do (curricular, technological and pedagogical knowledge and skills), and the kinds of assessments and evaluation measures needed to produce the desired results in candidates performance. (Dottin, xviii)

The Conceptual Framework of the Unit establishes an integrated vision for teaching, learning, professionalism and educator preparation at Bloomsburg University. It provides the foundation for the institution’s philosophical underpinnings, beliefs and values as well as outlines the proficiencies we emphasize and our commitment to the preparation of effective education professionals. Additionally, it guides the planning, development and implementation of programs and ensures connections between coursework, field experiences, student teaching and unit-wide assessment practices. The Conceptual Framework reflects our commitment to developing high professional standards, instilling candidates with the necessary skills for problem solving, preparing students to excel in collaborative professional settings, valuing the necessity of life-long learning, and preparing educators to work effectively with diverse populations. All initial teacher education programs focus on the development of the required knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions to ensure that candidates are prepared to meet all Unit, state and professional standards at the completion of their program. Advanced Programs emphasize the same knowledge, skills and dispositions as described for Initial Programs, as well as those identified through application of the Rigor and Relevance Framework.

The faculty members of the Unit have also identified the core candidate proficiencies related to the expected knowledge, skills and dispositions for effective practice. In addition to this, Unit faculty members have identified the key professional dispositions that educators must possess to interact effectively with students, families, colleagues and communities. The emphasis on dispositions reflects the critical importance of professional behaviors and the high degree of value placed on developing professional attitudes, values and beliefs within the Professional Education Unit.

SECTION II

Roles and Responsibilities of the Teacher Candidate

Many recognizable variables influence the amount of actual experience that teacher candidates will receive. These variables include the competence of the teacher candidate, the willingness of the cooperating teacher to share the class, modifications due to administrative decisions, extra-curricular programs, and curricular organizations. However, there are expectations that serve as standards upon which the Bloomsburg University teacher education program is based. During the initial week(s) of the experience, the teacher candidate should: (1) become familiar with the school environment; (2) assist the cooperating teacher; (3) review the planned courses of the grade, subject, and school; (4) gradually assume teaching responsibilities; and (5) plan for the remainder of the semester. Bloomsburg University expects a strong commitment to the student teaching experience.

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE TEACHER CANDIDATE

The teacher candidate should:

1. Coordinate arrival and departure times to and from school with those of the assigned school. The teacher candidate should not request permission to leave early or arrive late. Daily attendance is required.

2. Permission for all other absences must come from the University Supervisor. The University Supervisor must be notified before the cooperating teacher. Notify the University Supervisor and cooperating teacher, in a timely manner, of an absence due to an illness. Excessive absences, depending on the reason, may be made up at a time specified by the University Supervisor with the agreement of the cooperating teacher. Excessive absence is defined as more than three days in an assignment. The teacher candidate must secure permission from the University Supervisor more than one day in advance of the date of an interview leading to a teaching position.

3. Observe high standards of professional ethics; for example, never speak disparagingly or negatively of the school, the school personnel, or the students (see Appendix B-1 and B-2).

4. Demonstrate the highest professional standard in the use of language, writing, use of electronic media and personal behavior—both in and out of the classroom.

5. Use tact and discretion to guide actions in the faculty room. The teacher candidate can do more there to gain or lose acceptance by the regular faculty than anywhere in the school. The teacher candidate should stay out of arguments, listen well, attend to work, and criticize no one.

6. Dress in professional attire in accordance with district/site specific policies.
7. Inform the University Supervisor immediately if involved in any official legal situations/violations. (i.e., theft, alcohol-related violations, illegal drugs)

8. Abstain from accepting gifts or monetary donations from University Supervisors.

Failure to comply with any of the professional responsibilities will result in the teacher candidate being removed from the assignment (Review page 21).

UNIT-WIDE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR EACH STUDENT TEACHING PLACEMENT THAT MEET INTASC AND FRAMEWORK TEACHING STANDARDS

A team of University Supervisors formed a consensus regarding minimum requirements for each student teaching placement. These requirements are aligned with the INTASC (Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium) and the CAEP (Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation). It is expected that reflections will be incorporated within all requirements. Individual departments may require additional artifacts or reasonable substitutions. The minimum requirements include:

1. Unit Plan: Must include lesson plans for each day. (See Appendix E)
   - Plans must be initialed and dated by cooperating teacher three days prior to teaching or as the host district designates.

2. Common Core Standards-based/Unit Plan: 1 required per placement

3. Bulletin Board/Learning Center/Exhibit: 1 required per placement

4. Focused Observations of Other Teachers/Service Providers: Minimum required = 1 per placement

5. Video recording + Written Lesson Plans + Written Critique of the Lesson: Minimum required = 1
   (Check district policy regarding parent/guardian releases for video recording)

6. Multi-media/Technology: Document evidence of the integrated use of technology in planning and instruction

Note: Any projects (learning centers, bulletin boards, etc.) constructed with district materials will remain with the district.

(* Must include assessment data structure to demonstrate impact on PK-12 student learning)

11. Be responsible for maintaining an orderly and attractive environment.

12. Assume responsibility of the room for intervals when conditions make this necessary. For example, a visitor enters to whom the teacher needs to give undivided attention.

13. Propose new ideas or methods and interesting subject matter that may fit into the class and present them to the cooperating teacher.

14. React promptly to the suggestions of the cooperating teacher.

15. Be prepared for the next day before you leave school in the evening.

PLANNING FOR TEACHING

In collaboration with the cooperating teacher, the teacher candidate should:

2. Identify what has been previously taught and learned.

3. Determine major thematic units or topics to be taught.

4. Understand how to make transitions into future thematic units or topics.

5. Access and become familiar with district approved curricular materials.

6. Determine the specific objectives for each unit.

7. Locate and/or develop additional multi-media materials.

8. Determine the best plan of organization.

9. Develop formative and summative assessments to monitor and evaluate student progress including performance-based and alternative means of measurement.
DAILY PLANNING

There may be a few experienced teachers who can teach by depending upon the “inspiration of the moment”, but the best teaching is based on careful planning. For that reason, great emphasis will be placed on thorough planning during student teaching. Careful planning and good organization are characteristic of all skilled teachers. Lesson plans are essential to give direction to teaching and provide for greater student growth. Such plans are actually a working guide. Nothing can contribute more to confidence in teaching than careful planning of what the teacher is to do and how student involvement is to be accomplished.

All daily plans must be submitted to the cooperating teacher three days prior to instruction or at the designation of the host district. The teacher candidate will have lesson plans available for the University Supervisor at all times. The plans must be signed and dated by the cooperating teacher verifying approval.

THE TEACHER CANDIDATE’S SELF-EVALUATION

Self-evaluation can play a vital role in the teacher candidate’s improvement. After each lesson or day’s activity, brief notes can be made reflecting how the needs and interests of the students were met as well as how learning could be improved. There should be an “Evaluation” section at the end of each day’s lesson plan for this purpose.

Self-evaluation provides important insights into teaching and it also suggests questions that will need answers if improvement is to continue. (These questions should be written out when they arise for later discussion during a conference.) If the conferences are held frequently, situations that could become problems will be reduced.

UNIT PLANNING

Long-range planning must be completed before starting a new section of subject matter. The cooperating teacher and University Supervisor will work closely with the teacher candidate in helping to plan adequately. The key person in planning is the cooperating teacher, who knows the daily planning needs. The working draft must be handed to the cooperating teacher for approval before beginning the unit. (See Appendix E).
Evaluation of the Teacher Candidate’s Professional Growth

PURPOSE OF EVALUATION

Evaluation is an integral part of supervision and teaching. Its emphasis is on increasing growth and self-direction. Evaluation encompasses the total teacher candidate development rather than some isolated aspect of teaching. Special emphasis is placed on teacher candidate adjustment and development as a person actively engaged in the learning experiences of students. The ultimate goal of evaluation procedures is to provide the teacher candidate with guidelines for self-improvement. Evaluation is not limited to a final grade in student teaching, but is an inseparable part of the ongoing work of a teaching career with major emphasis on individual growth in the varied aspects of teaching performance.

GUIDELINES FOR EVALUATION

The conceptual framework adopted by the College of Education serves as a guide in the evaluation of the teacher candidate and includes the following principles:

1. Evaluation should be in terms of objectives and purposes that are clearly stated.

2. The University Supervisor and the cooperating teacher will share in the evaluation process.

3. Evaluation should be continuous.

4. Evaluation of the teacher candidate’s progress should lead toward increasing effectiveness in self-evaluation.

5. Evaluation should be based on specific evidence and achievement should be clearly indicated.

6. Evaluation should provide a written record of teacher candidate growth and should not be so time-consuming that it distracts from the cooperating teacher’s planning, conferring, and contributing to the teaching/learning process.

7. Evaluation should be primarily informal and cooperative.

8. Evaluation should be carried on in a variety of teaching/learning activities in which competence is observable.

9. Evaluation should result in specific suggestions for the teacher candidate to apply in subsequent lessons.
EVALUATION PROCEDURES

The evaluation process in student teaching may take many different forms. Several suggested here may be of value to the teacher candidate.

CONFERENCES

Frequent conferences should be held between the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher. There is no specific time that seems best for conferences, but ample time should be made available. Many times the conference will take place at the end of the day, providing for immediate evaluation and lead time in planning the next day’s work. Other conferences will take place during the teacher’s preparation period. Conferences may be informal and short, but sufficient time should be available to “talk things through.”

It is suggested that at least one formal conference should be held each week.

Approach the conference as a positive interchange. It should not be a lecture, but rather a discussion or conversation on a professional level providing an opportunity for the teacher candidate to discuss difficulties and for the cooperating teacher to make suggestions for the improvement of teaching and learning. The teacher candidate may request a conference with the cooperating teacher whenever needed. The teacher candidate should not feel self-conscious about the conference. The purpose is not to point out what the teacher candidate did wrong, but rather to stress a different way or an improvement in the learning process tailored for the particular student, classroom, or curriculum. Praise rather than censure should dominate the conference. Conferences give security to the teacher candidate, provide constructive and cooperative thinking, and provide an opportunity for developing effectiveness in self-evaluation.

The conference, whether it is between teacher candidate and cooperating teacher, or teacher candidate, cooperating teacher, and University Supervisor, provides the most effective means of giving direct and immediate counsel to the teacher candidate and of sharing the teacher candidate’s thinking on professional and even personal matters.

COOPERATING TEACHER’S EVALUATION OF TEACHER CANDIDATE

Cooperating teachers have an important function in the evaluation of the teacher candidate. As close associates of the teacher candidate, they have a first-hand opportunity to observe teacher candidate growth on a continuing basis. They may use some form of check sheet for evaluating each lesson given by the teacher candidate or may merely keep informal notes. It is strongly recommended that cooperating teachers write weekly appraisals of teacher candidate growth and share them with the University Supervisor. The information gained from all of these observations and sources is of little value unless discussed with the teacher candidate. The daily conference becomes a valuable, constructive means of helping the teacher candidate to grow and to find satisfaction in the teaching profession.

During each student teaching assignment, the cooperating teacher will complete formal observations, evaluations, and conferences. While the University Supervisor has the responsibility for the final decision regarding student teaching grades, the recommendations of cooperating teachers are of the utmost importance. Discretion should be used when discussing the teacher candidate’s final grade until consultation with the University Supervisor has occurred.
The specific evaluation activities which cooperating teachers should plan are:

1. Written evaluative comments.

2. Completion of at least two of the teacher candidate formal observation/conference forms during each placement for the teacher candidate.

3. Completion of the Mid-point and Final Teacher Candidate Evaluation.

UNIVERSITY SUPERVISOR EVALUATION OF THE TEACHER CANDIDATE

The University Supervisor, with the aid of each cooperating teacher, will be making a continuous evaluation of the teacher candidate. This will be accomplished through regular visits and observations and through conferences with the cooperating teacher and the teacher candidate. The University Supervisor and cooperating teacher work together as a team to effect the continuous professional growth of the teacher candidate. The University Supervisor shall make a minimum of four visits per half semester, two of which should be formal observations. The University Supervisor has the responsibility for the final decision regarding the teacher candidate’s grade(s).

When regular visits have not occurred, the cooperating teacher is to first contact the University Supervisor, then the department chairperson, and finally the dean in order to discuss the lack of visits.

In preparation for visits, the teacher candidate should remember that University Supervisors expect to observe a regular part of the day’s teaching and will not ordinarily require that a particular type of lesson be taught. Often, they will wish to see the same class or subject taught at a later time in order to observe evidence of growth and to make allowances for variations in class behavior.

University Supervisor Expectations

In each visit to the classroom, University Supervisors will be looking for many things, all of which will give a basis for judging the teacher candidate’s effectiveness as a future teacher. In particular, the evaluation will focus on the four domains of the educational framework, including: (1) planning and preparation, (2) classroom environment, (3) instruction, and (4) professional responsibilities, as designated on the Teacher Candidate Evaluation Form (Final) and PDE 430.

In lesson plans, University Supervisors look for clear purposes and correlation with previous lessons and experiences. They are concerned about awareness of group and individual differences and the ability to meet the needs and interests of the class. The use of multi-media, textbooks, teaching aids, and technology will be evaluated. Varieties of method and technique are important parts of the evaluation.

University Supervisors will want to know if the teacher candidate is able to manage the classroom and meet the needs of individuals. Is the teacher candidate able to take care of the many little routine details that are part of teaching? University Supervisors will have a conference with the teacher candidate following observations to discuss reactions to what has been seen. The teacher candidate should request additional conferences as needed. The conference will be more helpful to the teacher candidate if pertinent questions are raised about observed strengths and weaknesses.

FORMS TO BE COMPLETED BY THE UNIVERSITY SUPERVISOR

1. Student Teaching Observation and Conference Form
   May be used by University Supervisors and cooperating teachers to provide written feedback to students regarding strengths/concerns of the teacher candidate during each observation. Three copies will be made—one each to be maintained by the teacher candidate and the cooperating teacher and one to be kept by the University Supervisor.

REASONS AND PROCESSES FOR THE REMOVAL OF A TEACHER CANDIDATE FROM STUDENT TEACHING PLACEMENT

Purpose: To establish reasons and processes for the removal of a teacher candidate from the student teaching assignment. Also included is the appeal process should a student disagree with such removal.

Policy: Teacher candidates are ultimately the guest of the cooperating school districts and as such may be removed by the district officer. In such cases, the teacher candidate forfeits the right to student teach for the remainder of that assignment. (S/he may be reassigned by the University during the semester immediately following such removal.)

Policy: If convicted of a felony which is covered in the School Code and Act 34, the teacher candidate will be immediately withdrawn from the student teaching assignment and will forfeit the time spent during the student teaching experience.

Policy: If indicted for a felony which is covered in the School Code and Act 34, there shall be removal of the teacher candidate from the student teaching assignment until the matter is cleared.

Process: Immediately upon notification of the indictment, the chairperson of the department will notify the teacher candidate of his/her suspension from the student teaching assignment. The teacher candidate will be assigned to a class or an independent study closely related to the activities that (s)he would have had during the student teaching assignment. When (if) the teacher candidate is cleared of the indictment, (s)he will be readmitted to the student teaching assignment. Since no classroom experience or independent study can replace the actual classroom teaching experience, it may be necessary to extend the student teaching assignment to allow for these experiences. Should a teacher candidate wish to contest these decisions, the appeal process is outlined below.

Policy: If it is determined by the cooperating teacher and/or the University Supervisor that the teaching competency of the student is at an unsatisfactory level, the teacher candidate may be removed from the student teaching assignment. The teacher candidate will be assigned to a class or an independent study closely related to the activities that (s)he would have had during the student teaching assignment.

Process: The teacher candidate will be made aware of the areas of weakness and will be given recommendations for improvement. Progress, or lack of progress, will be monitored by the cooperating teacher and/or the University Supervisor. Should no improvement be evident, a three-way conference with the teacher candidate, the cooperating teacher, and the University Supervisor will be held to discuss withdrawal of the teacher candidate from the student teaching experience. Should the teacher candidate choose not to withdraw, it will be recommended to the department chairperson that the teacher candidate be removed from the student teaching assignment. This action shall be done by the department chairperson and the dean of the College of Education.

Re-admission: A teacher candidate may be assigned to another placement under the following procedure:

1. The assignment will be made in the following year for the same semester in which the teacher candidate has been removed.

2. Placement will be made only after an approved program of remediation has been successfully completed.

Recourse: Should the teacher candidate wish to grieve the decisions made in any of the steps above, (s)he will follow the grievance procedure as outlined by the University.
SECTION III

Roles and Responsibilities of the University Supervisor

University Supervisors are responsible for guiding the learning experiences of the teacher candidate and for evaluating their progress. To this end, University Supervisors are to make visits during the student teaching semester.

Supervision of Student Teaching or Clinical Experience

Since the distance to be traveled and needs of individual students will effect specific demands placed on supervisors, the following are established as minimum criteria:

A. Supervisors of teacher candidates shall make a minimum of four visits per half semester, two of which should be formal observations.

B. A visit is defined as a discussion with the cooperating teacher, teacher candidate, and supervisor concerning the progress of the teacher candidate. An observation consists of at least a review of the lesson plan, observation of the lesson, and post conference with appropriate feedback.

C. Documentation is required of all formal observations made by teacher candidate supervisors. Three copies of the observation form should be made. The teacher candidate and cooperating teacher shall be given a copy of the observation form, and the supervisor shall retain a copy for his/her records.

D. The supervisor shall complete the PDE form 430 twice for each teacher candidate. These two forms are confidential and used for certification. One will be completed mid-semester and one at the completion of the semester. https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/ (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)

DUTIES OF A UNIVERSITY SUPERVISOR

The University Supervisor is to:

1. Distribute the course responsibilities to students within the first week that specifies requirements and grading procedures (Academic Policies: 3264-Student Course Requirements and Progress Information).

2. Serve as liaison between the University and the cooperating school.

3. Formally observe and evaluate each teacher candidate a minimum of two times each assignment. Two informal visits each assignment normally occur. One should occur within the first two weeks of each student teaching assignment. The other may be used for final evaluation conferences. More visits can be scheduled as necessary.

4. Serve as a consultant and organizer of the student teaching seminar.

The University Supervisor is to:

5. Give the teacher candidate a preview of the experiences that may be expected during student teaching.

6. Help the teacher candidate plan the experiences during the semester to realize established objectives.

7. Help the teacher candidate develop desirable patterns of conduct while in the school.

8. Hold, as necessary, conferences with cooperating teachers for the purpose of discussing the professional progress of the teacher candidates.

9. Develop a complete and comprehensive evaluation of each teacher candidate to include a written evaluation for each placement.

10. Hold individual conferences with the teacher candidate for the purpose of discussing problems and progress.

11. Emphasize the importance of participation in and observation of civic activities in the school and community.

12. Maintain written records of all visits, including the major recommendations made to each teacher candidate. These are to be available for six months after the teacher candidate has completed the student teaching semester as per University policy.

13. Initiate the preparation of each final teacher candidate placement evaluation by the cooperating teacher and enter this evaluation via PSD.
   https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/
   (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)

14. Observe proper school protocol and professional courtesy when visiting in the cooperating schools.

15. Enter grades for each teacher candidate and submit PDE 430 to teacher certification office.

16. Evaluate the teacher candidate in collaboration with the cooperating teacher and hold a final evaluation conference with the teacher candidate.

17. Aid in conducting orientation sessions for new cooperating teachers.

18. Assure that proper payroll forms are on file in the department office.

19. Assist in continuous evaluation of the student teaching program.

20. Become well acquainted with the program, personnel, and policies of the school’s system.

The University Supervisor is to:

21. Monitor the evaluations by the cooperating teacher. Provide the necessary guidance and forms as needed. The cooperating teacher to whom the teacher candidate is assigned will make at least two formal observations during each placement.
   https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/
   (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)

22. Determine the procedures for each student teaching assignment and communicate these to each teacher candidate.

23. Be available to have conferences with each teacher candidate.

24. Abstain from giving gifts or monetary donations to teacher candidates.

UNIVERSITY SUPERVISOR OBSERVATIONS

The supervisor’s classroom observations provide an opportunity for conferring with the cooperating teacher and the teacher candidate concerning the teacher candidate’s progress, strengths, and needs.

To help the University Supervisor make the most effective and knowledgeable observations, the teacher candidate is expected to provide a copy of the lesson plan, supplementary materials, and text upon request.
SECTION IV

Role and Responsibilities of the Cooperating Teacher

Cooperating teachers are expected to conduct themselves professionally at all times. The cooperating teacher is obligated to help the teacher candidate plan, work with students, and gradually allow the teacher candidate to assume full-time teaching responsibilities. The cooperating teacher will follow the requirements of the University’s student teaching program.

The Pennsylvania Department of Education Chapter 354.25, Preparation Program Curriculum was used as a guideline, http://www.pacode.com/secure/data/022/chapter354/s354.25.html

Cooperating teachers will be selected and assigned based on the following criteria:

1. Have at least three years of satisfactory certified teaching experience, one of which is in the school entity to which the teacher candidate is assigned,
2. Have a teaching assignment appropriate to the subject competency of the teacher candidate, and
3. Have the opportunity to complete a program on observation and evaluation skills developed by the college for the cooperating teacher.

ORIENTATION OF THE TEACHER CANDIDATE

An atmosphere of acceptance is essential for success. Recognizing that the teacher candidate is an asset in the classroom can foster self-confidence.

The cooperating teacher will:

1. Provide a separate workspace and a collection of texts and materials for the teacher candidate to use.
2. Prepare students for the arrival of the teacher candidate and encourage them to look upon the teacher candidate as a member of the teaching team. Experience shows that the attitudes of students have a tremendous influence on the success of the teacher candidate.
3. Introduce administrative, instructional, and support staff to the teacher candidate.
4. Assist the teacher candidate with finding available resources in the community.
Observing lessons taught by the teacher candidate is essential for evaluation and guidance. The teacher candidate wants to know strengths as well as areas for improvement in regard to curriculum, instruction, and assessment. It is recommended that written records of teacher candidate performance be kept for reference in reviewing evidence of growth and in preparing the final evaluation. Evaluation forms may be accessed on the COE website at https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/ (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)

The following guiding questions are suggested items to considered when observing a teacher candidate:

PLANNING

1. Have prerequisite skills for the lesson been determined?
2. Is the purpose of the lesson clear to the teacher and student?
3. Are methods appropriate to the lesson?
4. Are teacher candidates given an opportunity to share in planning when appropriate?
5. Is there continuity?
6. Can the teacher candidate deviate from the plan without losing continuity?
7. Does the teacher candidate summarize or conclude the lesson appropriately?

PERFORMANCE

1. Does the teacher candidate enrich the lesson with material beyond the textbook or manual?
2. Are new lessons related to previous lessons and experiences?
3. Are concepts well developed?
4. Is there depth in the lesson?
5. Does the teacher candidate show enthusiasm while teaching?
6. Do voice, appearance, and manner aid the lesson?
7. Is the motivation successful?
8. Are multi-media materials and technological resources used effectively?
9. Do questioning techniques create an atmosphere for critical thinking on the part of the student?
10. Were lesson objectives achieved?
11. What evaluation techniques were used?
CONFERENCES BETWEEN COOPERATING TEACHER AND TEACHER CANDIDATE

Time for holding conferences is essential. From the first day, a set time should be provided for orientation, outlining teacher candidate responsibilities, establishing some expectations for the situation, and presenting an overview of the program.

The conference may deal with a number of items relating to teacher candidate growth. Matters of personal effectiveness, the policies and practices of the school, the interests, abilities, and background of students, provisions for individual differences, teaching procedures, the organization of the school, problems of control, the courses of study in classes which the teacher candidate will teach, and planning the daily and long-term activities of the students are worthy of conference time. The conference is designed to help the teacher candidate discuss problems and to exchange ideas and suggestions, thereby providing for the greatest possible growth leading to satisfaction and success in the teaching profession.

Constructive criticism is essential. The cooperating teacher should identify strengths and areas of concern while providing opportunities for the teacher candidate to improve performance. The cooperating teacher should plan to discuss progress with the teacher candidate frequently. There should be a formal conference at least once each week. The teacher candidate wants and needs the guidance of the cooperating teacher.

EVALUATION OF THE TEACHER CANDIDATE

1. Evaluations should be based on conferences as described.

2. A written formal evaluation using the appropriate form will be completed at the end of each student teaching placement. For teacher candidates completing their student teaching in one placement, formal evaluations will be completed at the mid semester and at the end of the semester. Formal observations/conferences should be completed each week of the student teaching assignment using forms approved by the University Supervisor. A conference should follow each observation. These observation reports should be kept on file and used as an aid in the final evaluation. Failure to complete the final evaluation form may result in a delay in processing the cooperating teacher's stipend. Refusal to complete the form or any portions of the final evaluation form will result in forfeiture of the cooperating teacher's stipend. (See Appendices E and I)

   https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/

   (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)

The cooperating teacher will confer with the University Supervisor throughout the semester concerning the teacher candidate's progress. The cooperating teacher's assessment of teacher candidate performance in the classroom will be considered by the University Supervisor in determining the final grade. The University Supervisor is responsible for the final grade given to the teacher candidate. Discretion should be used when discussing the teacher candidate's final grade until consultation with the University Supervisor has occurred. The supervisor will monitor the evaluations by the cooperating teacher and provide the necessary guidance and forms as needed. The cooperating teacher to whom the teacher candidate is assigned will make at least two formal written observations during each placement. (See Appendix E)

   https://bloomsburg.psd.pls3rdlearning.com/

   (See p 20, item 3, for login directions)
Other Responsibilities of the Cooperating Teacher

The cooperating teacher should:

1. Demonstrate exemplary teaching techniques.

2. Encourage professional growth through attendance at workshops and other in-service programs, professional meetings, and membership in professional organizations.

3. Be prepared to take over in any emergency with a minimum of embarrassment to the teacher candidate.

4. Check the school records prepared by the teacher candidate.

5. Become thoroughly familiar with and support the Bloomsburg University student teaching program.

6. Take part in the training courses, and programs sponsored by Bloomsburg University for its cooperating teachers. Standard IIIC of the Pennsylvania Department of Education General Standards for the Preparation of Teachers requires that cooperating teachers participate in education sessions or seminars sponsored by the University.

7. Initiate corrective measures for any perceived problems, communicating course of action to the University Supervisor.

Acknowledging the Service of the Cooperating Teacher

The cooperating teacher is compensated according to the guidelines established by the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. The stipends may vary depending on the number of teacher candidates per semester and/or the number of occasions one has served as a cooperating teacher.
Forms to be completed by the Cooperating Teacher

1. Cooperating Teacher Personnel Record Form – In order to receive the stipend for having a teacher candidate, payroll forms must be completed by each cooperating teacher for each teacher candidate supervised. The stipends for cooperating teachers are determined by the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education Board of Governors and are consistent among PASSHE universities. Forms will be distributed and must be on file at the University before payroll checks will be issued. Failure to submit such information or keeping pertinent information current will void and/or possibly delay payment until the next academic semester. If there are questions about this form or the stipend, please contact the director of the student teaching program.

APPENDIX B-1 (State)
Pennsylvania’s Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators

Section 1. Mission

The Professional Standards and Practices Commission is committed to providing leadership for improving the quality of education in this Commonwealth by establishing high standards for preparation, certification, practice and ethical conduct in the teaching profession.

Section 2. Introduction

(a) Professional conduct defines interactions between the individual educator and students, the employing agencies and other professionals. Generally, the responsibility for professional conduct rests with the individual professional educator. However, in this Commonwealth, a Code of Professional Practice and Conduct (Code) for certificated educators is required by statute and violation of specified sections of the Code may constitute a basis for public or private reprimand. Violations of the Code may also be used as supporting evidence, though may not constitute an independent basis, for the suspension or revocation of a certificate. The Professional Standards and Practices Commission (PSPC) was charged by the act of December 12, 1973 (P.L. 397, No. 141) (24 P.S. §§ 12-1251—12-1268), known as the Teacher Certification Law, with adopting a Code by July 1, 1991. See 24 P.S. § 12-1255(a)(10).

(b) This chapter makes explicit the values of the education profession. When individuals become educators in this Commonwealth, they make a moral commitment to uphold these values.

Section 3. Purpose

(a) Professional educators in this Commonwealth believe that the quality of their services directly influences the Nation and its citizens. Professional educators recognize their obligation to provide services and to conduct themselves in a manner which places the highest esteem on human rights and dignity. Professional educators seek to ensure that every student receives the highest quality of service and that every professional maintains a high level of competence from entry through ongoing professional development. Professional educators are responsible for the development of sound educational policy and obligated to implement that policy and its programs to the public.

(b) Professional educators recognize their primary responsibility to the student and the development of the student’s potential. Central to that development is the professional educator’s valuing the worth and dignity of every person, student and colleague alike; the pursuit of truth; devotion to excellence; acquisition of knowledge; and democratic principles. To those ends, the educator engages in continuing professional development and keeps current with research and technology. Educators encourage and support the use of resources that best serve the interests and needs of students. Within the context of professional excellence, the educator and student together explore the challenge and the dignity of the human experience.
Section 4. Practices

(a) Professional practices are behaviors and attitudes that are based on a set of values that the professional education community believes and accepts. These values are evidenced by the professional educator’s conduct toward students and colleagues, and the educator’s employer and community. When teacher candidates become professional educators in this Commonwealth, they are expected to abide by this section.

(b) Professional educators are expected to abide by the following:

1. Professional educators shall abide by the Public School code of 1949 (24 P.S. § 1-101—27-2702), other school laws of the Commonwealth, sections 1201 (a)(1), (2) and (4) and (b)(1), (2) and (4) of the Public Employee Relations Act (43 P.S. §§ 1101.1201 (a)(1), (2) and (4) and (b)(1), (2) and (4)) and this chapter.

2. Professional educators shall be prepared, and legally certified, in their areas of assignment. Educators may not be assigned or willingly accept assignments they are not certified to fulfill. Educators may be assigned to or accept assignments outside their certification area on a temporary, short-term, emergency basis. Examples: a teacher certified in English filling in a class period for a physical education teacher who has that day become ill; a substitute teacher certified in elementary education employed as a librarian for several days until the district can locate and employ a permanent substitute teacher certified in library science.

3. Professional educators shall maintain high levels of competence throughout their careers.

4. Professional educators shall exhibit consistent and equitable treatment of students, fellow educators and parents. They shall respect the civil rights of all and not discriminate on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, culture, religion, sex or sexual orientation, marital status, age, political beliefs, socioeconomic status, disabling condition or vocational interest. This list of bases of discrimination is not all-inclusive.

5. Professional educators shall accept the value of diversity in educational practice. Diversity requires educators to have a range of methodologies and to request the necessary tools for effective teaching and learning.

6. Professional educators shall impart to their students principles of good citizenship and societal responsibility.

7. Professional educators shall exhibit acceptable and professional language and communication skills. Their verbal and written communications with parents, students and staff shall reflect sensitivity to the fundamental human rights of dignity, privacy and respect.

8. Professional educators shall be open-minded, knowledgeable and use appropriate judgment and communication skills when responding to an issue within the educational environment.

9. Professional educators shall keep in confidence information obtained in confidence in the course of professional service unless required to be disclosed by law or by clear and compelling professional necessity as determined by the professional educator.

10. Professional educators shall exert reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions which interfere with learning or are harmful to the student’s health and safety.

Section 5. Conduct

Individual professional conduct reflects upon the practices, values, integrity and reputation of the profession. Violation of §§ 235.6—235.11 may constitute an independent basis for private or public reprimand, and may be used as supporting evidence in cases of certification suspension and revocation.

Section 6. Legal obligations

(a) The professional educator may not engage in conduct prohibited by the act of December 12, 1973 (P.L. 397, No. 141)(24 P.S. §§ 12-1251—12-1268), known as the Teacher Certification Law.

(b) The professional educator may not engage in conduct prohibited by:
   (1) The Public School Code of 1949 (24 P.S. §§ 1-101—27-2702) and other laws relating to the schools or the education of children.

(c) Violation of subsection (b) shall have been found to exist by an agency of proper jurisdiction to be considered an independent basis for discipline.

Section 7. Certification

The professional educator may not:
(1) Accept employment, when not properly certified, in a position for which certification is required.
(2) Assist entry into or continuance in the education profession of an unqualified person.
(3) Employ, or recommend for employment, a person who is not certified appropriately for the position.
Section 8. Civil Rights

The professional educator may not:
(1) Discriminate on the basis of race, National or ethnic origin, culture, religion, sex or sexual orientation, marital status, age, political beliefs, socioeconomic status; disabling condition or vocational interest against a student or fellow professional. This list of bases of discrimination is not all-inclusive. This discrimination shall be found to exist by an agency of proper jurisdiction to be considered an independent basis for discipline.
(2) Interfere with a student’s or colleague’s exercise of political and civil rights and responsibilities.

Section 9. Improper personal or financial gain

(1) Accept gratuities, gifts or favors that might impair or appear to impair professional judgment.
(2) Exploit a professional relationship for personal gain or advantage.

Section 10. Relationships with students

The professional may not:
(1) Knowingly and intentionally distort or misrepresent evaluations of students.
(2) Knowingly and intentionally misrepresent subject matter or curriculum.
(3) Sexually harass or engage in sexual relationships with students.
(4) Knowingly and intentionally withhold evidence from the proper authorities about violations of the legal obligations as defined within this section.

Section 11. Professional relationships

The professional educator may not:
(1) Knowingly and intentionally deny or impede a colleague in the exercise or enjoyment of a professional right or privilege in being an educator.
(2) Knowingly and intentionally distort evaluations of colleagues.
(3) Sexually harass a fellow employee.
(4) Use coercive means or promise special treatment to influence professional decisions of colleagues.
(5) Threaten, coerce or discriminate against a colleague who in good faith reports or discloses to a governing agency actual or suspected violations of law, agency regulations or standards.

The Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators can be found at 22 Pa. Code § §235.1 – 235.11. All questions should be directed to the Professional Standards and Practices Commission at 717.787.6576.
Preamble

The National Education Association believes that the education profession consists of one education workforce serving the needs of all students and that the term ‘educator’ includes education support professionals.

The educator, believing in the worth and dignity of each human being, recognizes the supreme importance of the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, and the nurture of the democratic principles. Essential to these goals is the protection of freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal educational opportunity for all. The educator accepts the responsibility to adhere to the highest ethical standards.

The educator recognizes the magnitude of the responsibility inherent in the teaching process. The desire for the respect and confidence of one’s colleagues, of students, of parents, and of the members of the community provides the incentive to attain and maintain the highest possible degree of ethical conduct. The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession indicates the aspiration of all educators and provides standards by which to judge conduct.

The remedies specified by the NEA and/or its affiliates for the violation of any provision of this Code shall be exclusive and no such provision shall be enforceable in any form other than the one specifically designated by the NEA or its affiliates.

PRINCIPLE I

Commitment to the Student

The educator strives to help each student realize his or her potential as a worthy and effective member of society. The educator therefore works to stimulate the spirit of inquiry, the acquisition of knowledge and understanding, and the thoughtful formulation of worthy goals.

In fulfillment of the obligation to the student, the educator—

1. Shall not unreasonably restrain the student from independent action in the pursuit of learning.
2. Shall not unreasonably deny the student’s access to varying points of view.
3. Shall not deliberately suppress or distort subject matter relevant to student’s progress.
4. Shall make a reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions harmful to learning or to health and safety.
5. Shall not intentionally expose the student to embarrassment or disparagement.

6. Shall not on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, marital status, political or religious beliefs, family, social or cultural background, or sexual orientation, unfairly—
   a. Exclude any student from participation in any program
   b. Deny benefits to any student
   c. Grant any advantage to any student

7. Shall not use professional relationships with students for private advantage.

8. Shall not disclose information about students obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law.

PRINCIPLE II

Commitment to the Profession

The education profession is vested by the public with a trust and responsibility requiring the highest ideals of professional service.

In the belief that the quality of the services of the education profession directly influences the nation and its citizens, the educator shall exert every effort to raise professional standards, to promote a climate that encourages the exercise of professional judgment, to achieve conditions that attract persons worthy of the trust to careers in education, and to assist in preventing the practice of the profession by unqualified persons.

In fulfillment of the obligation to the profession, the educator—

1. Shall not in an application for a professional position deliberately make a false statement or fail to disclose a material fact related to competency and qualifications.

2. Shall not misrepresent his/her professional qualifications.

3. Shall not assist any entry into the profession of a person known to be unqualified in respect to character, education, or other relevant attribute.

4. Shall not knowingly make a false statement concerning the qualifications of a candidate for a professional position.

5. Shall not assist a noneducator in the unauthorized practice of teaching.

6. Shall not disclose information about colleagues obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law.

7. Shall not knowingly make false or malicious statements about a colleague.

8. Shall not accept any gratuity, gift, or favor that might impair or appear to influence professional decisions or action.

Grade Level(s):
Subject Area(s)/Subject Content Explanation:

Standard(s)/Anchors: PA Academic Standards/Anchors describe what students should demonstrate and be able to do as a result of instruction. Common Core Standards may be used by school districts to represent a set of expectations for student knowledge and skills that high school graduates need to master to succeed in college and careers.

Essential Question(s): An essential question establishes content knowledge and connects that knowledge to the topic at hand and to the student’s prior knowledge. Essential questions should be embedded throughout the introduction, procedures, and closure of a lesson or unit of study.

Instructional Objective(s): A clearly delineated statement of what a student will demonstrate or do after instruction has occurred. This should specify the condition, performance, and criterion.

Formative Assessment: The assessment process that occurs during instruction and learning activities.

Summative Assessment: The assessment process that occurs after instruction and learning activities. If the lesson is a component of a unit of study, describe how students will demonstrate mastery of material and how it will be measured.

II. LESSON BODY

INTRODUCTION: A process to engage/activate student learning, interest and prior knowledge. This activity and instruction relate the experiences of the students to the objectives of the lesson. An “Instructional Set” may include a motivational device, connection to prior learning and real life experiences, relevance to future learning, stated connection to instructional objective and academic standards or the essential questions to be addressed in lesson.

TEACHING PROCEDURES: The step-by-step process/procedure for teaching information, concepts and skills identified in the instructional objectives.

Must include:
*Description of Method(s) Used to Present Subject Matter - Explicitly and sequentially describe how you will teach/present the lesson's concepts to your students and the multiple approaches you will use. Include the learning activities, processes, procedures and or strategies that support the lesson.
*Guided Practice - Explicitly and sequentially describe the opportunities provided to students for practice and application of skills under direct teacher supervision. This may involve modeling, use of prompt hierarchies and use of key discussion questions to stimulate thought and provoke inquiry.
*Independent Practice - Explicitly and sequentially describe the opportunities provided to students to practice and apply skills independently. This provides a platform for formative assessment practices and connection to lesson objectives.

CLOSURE: A process designed to bring a lesson presentation to an appropriate conclusion. Used to help students bring things together in their own minds, to use, apply and extend what has just been taught. The lesson summary includes a review of central lesson concepts and/or essential questions, a preview of future learning, an application to daily living or an expansion/extension of concept.
III. LESSON ESSENTIALS

DIFFERENTIATED LEARNING ACTIVITIES: Specific activities designed to provide for the instructional needs of ALL students (e.g., learning profile, ethnicity, ability, gender). Learning profiles can include student interests, readiness, and learning styles.

Instruction should be differentiated through: 1) content, 2) process, 3) product, and/or 4) learning environment. Describe how differentiation meets the learning needs of students in your classroom and research-based strategies utilized to optimize learning.

Additional individualized strategies as mandated by IEPs and 504 plans include:

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES, MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGY: List all materials, resources and technology utilized in the instruction of a lesson.

IV. POST-LESSON REFLECTION:

ANALYSIS OF STUDENT LEARNING: Review of data and documented evidence of lesson results as related to instructional objectives or standards.

ANALYSIS OF TEACHING: Include modifications/recommendations of current instruction for future application on 1) planning and preparation, 2) classroom environment, 3) instruction, and 4) professional responsibilities as related to instructional objectives or standards.

9. Differentiated Learning Activities: Include research-based strategies that challenge all learners. Include context of the learners as a rationale for differentiation:
   - Describe important characteristics of the learners in your classroom: number of learners and gender, race/ethnicity, school socio-economic status, special needs, and language proficiency (as defined by Field Experience Diversity Requirements).
   - Explain the specific activities that differentiate the content, process, product, and/or learning environment designed to provide advanced achievement for all learners.
   - Explain the accommodations made for learners with disabilities (IEPs).

   Differentiation within the unit plan for a university course is up to the discretion of the professor (e.g., simulation experience).

10. Summative Assessment/Post-Assessment - Related directly to pre-assessment to evaluate degree of student learning after unit is taught and which match unit goals and lesson plan objectives. Summative assessments include chapter/unit tests, writing projects, quizzes, or ongoing projects, etc.
11. Reflection—Completed after implementation of unit plan: Utilize pre-assessment data to assist your reflection. Within a university course, provide questions you may pose to yourself for evaluating student learning and your instructional decisions.

- ANALYSIS OF STUDENT LEARNING: Analyze assessment data and documented evidence of lesson results and explain to what degree instructional decisions made an impact on student learning and achievement of unit goals and lesson objectives.

- ANALYSIS OF TEACHING: Include modifications/recommendations of current instruction for future application on 1) planning and preparation, 2) classroom environments, 3) instruction, and 4) professional responsibilities as related to instructional objectives or standards.

The Student Teacher Contract

The Student Teacher Contract is divided into first and second placements. This contract lists recommended assignments, which total 100 points. The college supervisor (CS) will discuss this contract with the cooperating teacher (CT) so a mutual agreement can be reached. Alternative assignments may be substituted for some recommended assignments. This is dependent upon the nature of the classroom, student needs, and cooperating teacher recommendations.

Notebook

Each ST should purchase two large, three-ring notebooks or binders for the purpose of holding the material needed for each student teaching. These notebooks are to be organized into sections, as outlined in this manual. Each section will have an introductory paragraph page, stating/outlining what that section includes. The notebooks are to be made available to the CT and CS at all times. It should be remembered that for the CT and CS to lend support, they need to know how the ST organizes and retrieves materials, develops concepts, teaches, and evaluates the lessons. Little help can be provided if only the finished product is seen. The first notebooks is due week 9 and the second notebook is due week 15 (will not include the last week’s lesson plans).

The Resume

The Resume is to be completed with a copy provided to the CS and one copy to each CT. Resume models from past student teachers may be available for student teacher (ST) review.

Class Schedule/School Calendar

The Class Schedule/School Calendar should include the following: class periods, time subjects taught, and grouping. Appendix D is a model of a daily schedule for a learning support classroom. The Class Schedule and a School Calendar should be given to the CS the first week of each placement.

Classroom Overview

The classroom overview provides the ST with a general description of the type of classroom/educational setting where their student teaching placement will occur. Information included in the classroom overview will also assist the CS in completing the ST’s final letter of recommendation.

Induction Information

Included in Appendix J is an Induction Information Form. The ST is to inventory all applicable components at each assignment. This form is to assist the ST in becoming aware of a school’s environment/policies as well as facilitate communication between the CT and ST.

The IEP

The Individualized Education Program (IEP) is a requirement for all student teachers. A minimum of one IEP is required, if appropriate. A student should be chosen by the third week of the placement. If possible, students should be selected on the basis of IEP revision due date, or the arrival of a new student. The ST is responsible, when warranted, for testing the student, either with formal or informal measures used by the CT or selected by the ST. The IEP format followed by the CT is acceptable.

The IEP format, as required by IDEIA-P.L. 108-466, is found online at the PaTTAN website. Specific attention should be given to “Present Levels of Educational Performance”. Annual goals and objectives (when required) should be based on the student’s strengths and needs as required by Pennsylvania regulations. For students with a hearing loss it is also necessary to complete the Communication Plan. It is also suggested that the ST consult curricular material. It is not advisable for the ST to attempt to write a sequence of goals and objectives without reviewing PA academic standards and/or assessment anchors.

Unit

If applicable and timely, an instructional unit should be developed, taught and evaluated. It should be kept in mind that a student teaching placement lasts only eight weeks, requiring a short or mini unit. The ST should choose a unit topic based on the academic and/or social needs of the students in their classroom. Because of the short length of time, the unit topic should be chosen early. It is suggested that the ST not choose a general topic, but a specific one. An example of a general topic would be “measurements”. A specific unit would be “linear measurements”. The nature of itinerant teacher does not always lend itself to a unit plan and thus it would only be required during a classroom placement. A unit format is outlined in Appendix F. The grading rubric is helpful to follow.

Teaching Devices/Adaptations

During both placements of student teaching several teaching devices/adaptations (Appendix G) are constructed and implemented during each student teaching assignment. The objective is for the ST to make a device to support a concept being taught. It should be kept in mind that this device may be very simple, requiring little time to prepare, or it may be complex. The device will be evaluated on its impact in the teaching process, not by the time it took to construct it. These teaching devices and lesson adaptations must be maintained in your 3-ring binder to show your CT and your CS.

Bulletin Boards/Learning Stations

Bulletin board/learning station development will vary according to the ST’s placement. Bulletin boards should be viewed from a broad perspective in that they may be decorative, seasonal, informative or educational. A learning station is usually devised to support some instructional format requiring student participation without continuous teacher assistance. The bulletin board may be constructed by the ST or students. The learning station must be designed, implemented, and evaluated by the ST. The CS’s first preference in evaluating bulletin boards is to see it on site. The ST must do a write-up for all bulletin boards or learning stations (Appendix H). The format for the bulletin board can also be modified to be used for a learning station. The ST should take a picture to document the completion of these in your notebook.

Observations

Observations by the ST are to be scheduled at least two days ahead of time. Traditionally, the ST observes other classes. A priority list, which may vary according to placement, is as follows: 1) a pupil in an inclusive class, 2) a parent conference, 3) a student with disabilities the ST may not yet know, or 4) a related service such as a speech or
Anecdotal Records

Anecdotal Records/ABC Analysis (Appendix I) should be maintained for any student whose behaviors merit such attention and housed in your student teaching notebook. If an anecdotal record is maintained for a given pupil, it is suggested that the ST directly observe the pupil several times. Entries should be made at least daily. Please remember that anecdotal records should not include subjective interpretation, just objective documentation of the student’s behavior.

Lesson Plans

The structure of the daily lesson plan format to be utilized by the ST will be dictated by a variety of factors. These factors include the type of classroom, student needs, CT preferences/expectations, district/building policy, and the ST’s level of advanced planning, preparation, and instructional effectiveness. Regardless of the style of lesson plans created by your CT, it is a ST’s responsibility to plan and thus create a complete lesson plan for each lesson he/she teaches for a CT, CS, and videotaped lesson. You must update and maintain these in your notebook.

Appendix N includes the Lesson Plan Format and a helpful rubric your CS will use for grading purposes. Appendices O, P, Q and R provide information and examples to assist with the process of writing lesson plan objectives.

Student Teacher Self-Evaluation through Videotape Critique and Reflection

During Student Teaching you are required to video yourself teaching lessons or providing instruction. These videotapes allow you to self-evaluate your instructional strategies and effectiveness and provide YOURSELF your own feedback, which your CS will review/grade your ability to effectively provide yourself feedback. You can also have your CT view your videos and provide you feedback, this is optional. To evaluate yourself/video you will use both the Classroom Observation Form T and U. Although it can be intimidating to be videotaped, the information obtained from this exercise will be invaluable in your development as a teacher. These 5 video sessions must be planned in advance. Equipment failure or student absence will not be an acceptable late excuse, hence the planning well in advance of the due dates to assure your student is not absent and that your equipment works!

Assistive Listening Devices (ALDs)

During student teaching you have the opportunity to learn about many different types of listening/hearing devices that students who are Deaf/HH utilize. In this section of your notebook you will describe the different types of hearing aids, CIs, and ALDs you had the opportunity to become familiar with.
Evaluation Criteria

Guidelines for Student Teacher Evaluation

This is a criterion-referenced format used to identify strengths and weaknesses of STs as they develop. This form consists of competencies which are generic to all education majors (Items #1-33) and those identified as critical skills needed by special education majors (Items #34-60) by the Department of Exceptionality Programs. Each time the student teacher is evaluated and given feedback by the CT, she/he should be able to formulate a profile of strengths and weaknesses. Timelines are suggested for evaluation on its cover sheet. Appendix T contains this evaluation form.

The first two evaluations are done for the purpose of identifying specific strengths and areas that need improvement. The third and final evaluations are transferred onto a final form with identical content, but it also lists the first and second assignments. This form becomes part of the ST's credentials. The final evaluation is converted into a letter grade.

The letter grade is computed as follows:

\begin{align*}
50 \times 3's &= 150 & A &= 3.00 - 2.80 \\
5 \times 2's &= 10 & A- &= 2.79 - 2.70 \\
5 \times 1's &= 5 & B+ &= 2.69 - 2.62 \\
& Total: & B &= 2.61 - 2.50 \\
60 \text{ into } 165 &= 2.75 & B- &= 2.49 - 2.40 \\
& C+ &= 2.39 - 2.30 \\
& C &= 2.29 - 2.10 \\
& D &= 2.09 - 1.80 \\
& E &= 1.79 - 0
\end{align*}

In the example, 60 is the total of numbers (threes through zeros) checked in the evaluation. 165 is the total of the numbers (threes through zeros) times the frequency they were checked in the rating scale. The final score, 2.75, was a result of dividing 165 by 60. The grading scale used in student teaching is to the right of the example. As can be seen, 2.75 would be an “A-”.

Note- Items scored “NA” are not factored into the final grade computation.

Classroom Observation Form for College Supervisors

One instrument is used in classroom observations (Appendix T). This is used during the CS's observations of the ST. Copies will be shared with the CT.
General Information

Elements of Performance Objectives

STs are required to formulate specific objectives that will then be incorporated into the planning process. Appendix O – Elements of a Performance Objective and Appendix R – Classification of Educational Objectives and Illustrative Behavioral Terms assist the ST in this task. The ST should eventually be able to assess students' needs and identify their present levels of educational performance. Annual goals and specific objectives should be formulated which reflect the school's course of study, student's present educational levels, PA academic common core standards.

General Guidelines for Student Teachers and Supervising Classroom Teachers

The General Guidelines for Weekly Activities is found in Appendix W. This has been included since ST's progress at different rates and need a reference that will act as a personal timeline. It is impossible to construct a single prototype that will apply to the diversity of classroom instruction found in special education. The General Guide for Weekly Activities is to serve as a basic reference for STs and CTs. The progression of any ST is determined by the type of placement, the strengths of the ST, the CT, and often the CS.

Additional Information

Absences/Tardiness

The ST is to follow the guidelines established by the local education agency for absences or tardiness. If sickness or an emergency occurs that requires an absence, the ST is to notify the CS and CT. In cases of absence, the ST is held responsible for getting lesson plans to the CT. There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this expectation and failure to do so may result in a lowered grade for student teaching.

Neither tardiness nor early departure from school is permissible. If car pooling, it should be understood that arrival and departure times may differ, but the ST is responsible for a full day. In some cases the CT may wish to consult with the ST immediately after school if the daily schedule does not allow appropriate time. This will be left to the discretion of the CT. Daily sharing of ideas is critical and if this needs to be communicated after school, the ST must accommodate.

Emergency Substitute Teaching

It is highly recommended that student teachers NOT BE utilized as substitute teachers for the following reasons:

1. Student teachers are not district, intermediate unit or agency employees.
2. Student teachers may not receive compensation in any form for substitute teaching service.
3. Student teachers have not obtained a valid Pennsylvania certificate in their field of study.

Additionally, student teachers serving in such a capacity increases the potential liability issue for all parties involved.
Appendices
Appendix A
Code of Ethics for Student Teachers

The assumption that student teachers desire to do the right thing in their student teaching relationships, that student teaching is a privilege which should be denied to those who do not adhere to a high ethical standard, and that a statement of a code of ethics will help those whose judgments might be faulty has resulted in the following proposed code of ethics:

1. Schools are an agent of society for promoting the welfare of children and youth. I shall, therefore, never divulge information about children except in those professional relationships designed for the welfare of children, and I shall act only after having received the approval of my Cooperating Teacher (CT).

2. Since I am directly responsible to the CT, I shall discuss with him/her any problem before presenting it to another.

3. I shall be loyal to the school in which I am privileged to do my student teaching, reserving criticism until I am fully aware of all factors. I shall present my ideas and questions only to those responsible for the school.

4. My loyalty to the school shall continue after my student teaching is completed.

5. Since I am jointly responsible with the CT and the school for what happens to the children during my student teaching assignment, I shall exert myself to the fullest.

6. I shall receive constructive criticism and suggestions in a professional manner, making every effort to implement these suggestions.

7. I shall abide by the rules and regulations governing the faculty and the staff during my placement in a school.

8. I shall be friendly and sympathetic with the children, but I shall in no way “curry favor” with the children or interfere between the teacher and pupils.

9. I shall go the extra mile to make myself a useful, contributing member of the school staff.

10. I shall discharge to the fullest every responsibility which I accept and shall honestly evaluate the effectiveness of my performance.

11. I shall strive for a fuller mastery of subject matter, a clearer concept of successful teaching, and a keener understanding of children.

12. I enter the teaching profession with a determination to continue to grow and to make it a finer profession because of my part in it. Only those who love children and enjoy teaching can hope to become real teachers.

13. I will inform myself about the correct professional and ethical procedures to follow in securing a position or in changing from one position to another. I shall adhere to these procedures. I shall regard any contract I sign as binding until it is dissolved by mutual consent of my employer and myself.

Acknowledgement is made to the College of Education, University of Kentucky, for this Code of Ethics.
Appendix B
Student Teacher Regulations in Special Education

The Student Teacher Must:

1. Have evidence of a current Act 34 (Criminal), Act 151 (Child Abuse) and Act 114 (FBI) clearances to present to the appropriate school district/intermediate unit representative on or before the first day of each assignment.

2. Have evidence of a TB test to present to the school nurse or building principal on or before the first day of each assignment.

3. Have evidence of membership in a professional organization which assures liability, or be covered under liability.

4. Attend all in-service and teacher meetings unless specified otherwise by the cooperating teacher (CT) and college supervisor (CS).

5. Report to school on time and remain until the school day is terminated, or after the CT gives permission if a conference is scheduled.

6. Follow school regulations and policy handbook. If illness or an emergency occurs contact the CT and CS immediately.

7. Present resume to CT during first week of each assignment.

8. Present copies of lesson plans, IEP’s, units, or special projects to the CT prior to instruction. With permission from the CT, materials may be entered in the student teaching notebook and made available to the CT and CS.

9. Attend all scheduled meetings for Student Teaching Seminar.

10. Assume responsibilities of pupils outside of classroom, i.e., hallway, cafeteria, playground, especially if danger exists.

11. Follow all regulations regarding confidentiality of pupils’ records as specified in Pennsylvania Special Education Regulations, P.L. 108-446, and school district policy.

12. Dress appropriately for school environment.

13. Gradually assume teaching responsibilities as outlined in Weekly Recommended Activities (Appendix X).

14. Attempt to first resolve any classroom problems with the CT; if not successful, discuss them with the CS.

15. Return all materials borrowed from the CT, CS, school district or I.U., college library, etc. prior to the last week of class.

The Student Teacher Contract

In your two 3-ring binders, one for each placement, each of the sections below should be tabbed and you need to provide documentation of completion of this activity. This contract and the notebooks are critical to your success in these two student teaching placements. Each section of your notebook, as outlined below, will begin with a short paragraph description of what this section includes and, when applicable, what you did to complete this section.

One individual listed above must be able to interpret the instructional implications of any evaluation results.

Written input received from the following members:

Transfer of Rights at Age of Majority

For purposes of education, the age of majority is reached in Pennsylvania when the individual reaches 21 years of age. Likewise, for purposes of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, the age of majority is reached for students with disabilities when they reach 21 years of age.

PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS NOTICE

I have received a copy of the Procedural Safeguards Notice during this school year. The Procedural Safeguards Notice provides information about my rights, including the process for disagreeing with the IEP. The school has informed me whom I may contact if I need more information.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM BILLING NOTICE

(Applicable only to parents who have consented to the release of billing information to Medical Assistance programs)

I understand that the school may charge the School-Based Access Program (“SBAP”)—or any program that replaces or supplements the SBAP—the cost of certain special education and related services described in my child’s IEP. To make these charges to the SBAP, the school will release to the administrator of that program the name, age, and address of my child, verification of Medicaid eligibility for my child, a copy of my child’s IEP, a description of the services provided and the times and dates during which such services were provided to my child, and the identity of the provider of such services. I understand that such information will not be disclosed, and such charges will not be made, unless I consent to the disclosure. I acknowledge that I have provided written consent to disclose such information.

I understand that my consent is ongoing from year-to-year unless and until I withdraw it. I can withdraw my consent in writing, or orally if I am unable to write, at any time. My refusal to consent or my withdrawal of consent will not relieve the school of the obligation to provide, at no cost to me or my family, any service or program to which my child is entitled under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (“IDEA”) or that is necessary to enable my child to receive a free appropriate public education as described in my child’s IEP.

I understand that the school cannot—

- Require me or my family to sign up for or enroll in any public benefits or insurance program, such as Medicaid, as a condition of receiving a free appropriate public education for my child;
- Require me or my family to incur any expense for the provision of a free appropriate public education to my child, including co-payments and deductibles, unless it agrees to pay such expenses on my or my family’s behalf;
- Cause a decrease in available lifetime coverage or any other insured benefit;
- Cause me or my family to pay for services that would otherwise be covered by a public benefits or insurance program and that are required for my child outside the time that he or she is in school;
- Risk the loss of eligibility for home and community-based waivers, based on aggregate health-related expenditures.
I. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS THE IEP TEAM MUST CONSIDER BEFORE DEVELOPING THE IEP. ANY FACTORS CHECKED AS “YES” MUST BE ADDRESSED IN THE IEP.

Is the student blind or visually impaired?
- Yes The IEP must include a description of the instruction in Braille and the use of Braille unless the IEP team determines, after an evaluation of the student’s reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media (including an evaluation of the student’s future needs for instruction in Braille or the use of Braille), that instruction in Braille or the use of Braille is not appropriate for the student.
- No

Is the student deaf or hard of hearing?
- Yes The IEP must include a communication plan to address the following: language and communication needs; opportunities for direct communications with peers and professional personnel in the student’s language and communication mode; academic level; full range of needs, including opportunities for direct instruction in the student’s language and communication mode; and assistive technology devices and services. Indicate in which section of the IEP these considerations are addressed. The Communication Plan must be completed and is available at www.pattan.net.
- No

Does the student have communication needs?
- Yes Student needs must be addressed in the IEP (i.e., present levels, specially designed instruction (SDI), annual goals, etc.)
- No

Does the student need assistive technology devices and/or services?
- Yes Student needs must be addressed in the IEP (i.e., present levels, specially designed instruction, annual goals, etc.)
- No

Does the student have limited English proficiency?
- Yes The IEP team must address the student’s language needs and how those needs relate to the IEP.
- No
INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION PROGRAM (IEP)

Student’s Name:

Does the student exhibit behaviors that impede his/her learning or that of others?

☐ Yes  The IEP team must develop a Positive Behavior Support Plan that is based on a functional assessment of behavior and that utilizes positive behavior techniques. Results of the functional assessment of behavior may be listed in the Present Levels section of the IEP with a clear measurable plan to address the behavior in the Goals and Specially Designed Instruction sections of the IEP or in the Positive Behavior Support Plan if this is a separate document that is attached to the IEP. A Positive Behavior Support Plan and a Functional Behavioral Assessment form are available at www.pattan.net

☐ No

Other (specify):

II. PRESENT LEVELS OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE

Include the following information related to the student:

- Present levels of academic achievement (e.g., most recent evaluation of the student, results of formative assessments, curriculum-based assessments, transition assessments, progress toward current goals)
- Present levels of functional performance (e.g., results from a functional behavioral assessment, results of ecological assessments, progress toward current goals)
- Present levels related to current postsecondary transition goals if the student’s age is 14 or younger if determined appropriate by the IEP team (e.g., results of formative assessments, curriculum-based assessments, progress toward current goals)
- Parental concerns for enhancing the education of the student
- How the student’s disability affects involvement and progress in the general education curriculum
- Strengths
- Academic, developmental, and functional needs related to student’s disability

III. TRANSITION SERVICES - This is required for students age 14 or younger if determined appropriate by the IEP team. If the student does not attend the IEP meeting, the school must take other steps to ensure that the student’s preferences and interests are considered. Transition services are a coordinated set of activities for a student with a disability that is designed to be within a results oriented process, that is focused on improving the academic and functional achievement of the student with a disability to facilitate the student’s movement from school to post school activities, including postsecondary education, vocational education, integrated employment (including supported employment), continuing and adult education, adult services, independent living, or community participation that is based on the individual student’s needs taking into account the student’s strengths, preferences, and interests.

VII. EDUCATIONAL PLACEMENT

A. QUESTIONS FOR IEP TEAM - The following questions must be reviewed and discussed by the IEP team prior to providing the explanations regarding participation with students without disabilities.

It is the responsibility of each public agency to ensure that, to the maximum extent appropriate, students with disabilities, including those in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with students who are not disabled. Special classes, separate schooling or other removal of students with disabilities from the general educational environment occurs only when the nature or severity of the disability is such that education in general education classes, EVEN WITH the use of supplementary aids and services, cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

- What supplementary aids and services were considered? What supplementary aids and services were rejected? Explain why the supplementary aids and services will or will not enable the student to make progress on the goals and objectives (if applicable) in this IEP in the general education class.

- What benefits are provided in the general education class with supplementary aids and services versus the benefits provided in the special education class?

- What potentially beneficial effects and/or harmful effects might be expected on the student with disabilities or the other students in the class, even with supplementary aids and services?

- To what extent, if any, will the student participate with nondisabled peers in extracurricular activities or other nonacademic activities?

Explanation of the extent, if any, to which the student will not participate with students without disabilities in the regular education class:

Explanation of the extent, if any, to which the student will not participate with students without disabilities in the general education curriculum:
B. Type of Support

1. Amount of special education supports

- Itinerant: Special education supports and services provided by special education personnel for 20% or less of the school day
- Supplemental: Special education supports and services provided by special education personnel for more than 20% of the day but less than 80% of the school day
- Full-Time: Special education supports and services provided by special education personnel for 80% or more of the school day

2. Type of special education supports

- Autistic Support
- Blind-Visually Impaired Support
- Deaf and Hard of Hearing Support
- Emotional Support
- Learning Support
- Life Skills Support
- Multiple Disabilities Support
- Physical Support
- Speech and Language Support
C. Location of student’s program

Name of School District where the IEP will be implemented:
Name of School Building where the IEP will be implemented:

Is this school the student’s neighborhood school (i.e., the school the student would attend if he/she did not have an IEP)?
   ☐ Yes
   ☐ No. If the answer is “no,” select the reason why not.
      ☐ Special education supports and services required in the student’s IEP cannot be provided in the neighborhood school
      ☐ Other. Please explain:

VIII. PENNDATA REPORTING: Educational Environment (Complete either Section A or B; Select only one Educational Environment)

To calculate the percentage of time inside the regular classroom, divide the number of hours the student spends inside the regular classroom by the total number of hours in the school day (including lunch, recess, study periods). The result is then multiplied by 100.

SECTION A: For Students Educated in Regular School Buildings with Non Disabled Peers - Indicate the Percentage of time INSIDE the regular classroom for this student:

Time spent outside the regular classroom receiving services unrelated to the student’s disability (e.g., time receiving ESL services) should be considered time inside the regular classroom. Educational time spent in age-appropriate community-based settings that include individuals with and without disabilities, such as college campuses or vocational sites, should be counted as time spent inside the regular classroom.

Induction Information

(This should be completed no later than the 2nd week of each assignment.)

One of the first problems encountered by the student teacher or a teacher who is new to a particular school is that of becoming acquainted with school policy. Once situations involving policy are mastered and become automatic, the teacher can put efforts where they belong – his/her students and teaching.

Grade Level(s):
Time Allotted:

Subject Area(s)/Subject Content Explanation:

Standard(s)/Anchors: PA Academic Standards/Anchors describe what students should demonstrate and be able to do as a result of instruction. Common Core Standards may be used by school districts to represent a set of expectations for student knowledge and skills that high school graduates need to master to succeed in college and careers.

Essential Question(s): An essential question establishes content knowledge and connects that knowledge to the topic at hand and to the student’s prior knowledge. Essential questions should be embedded throughout the introduction, procedures, and closure of a lesson or unit of study.

Instructional Objective(s): A clearly delineated statement of what a student will demonstrate or do after instruction has occurred. This should specify the condition, performance, and criterion.

Formative Assessment: The assessment process that occurs during instruction and learning activities.

Summative Assessment: The assessment process that occurs after instruction and learning activities. If the lesson is a component of a unit of study, describe how students will demonstrate mastery of material and how it will be measured.

II. LESSON BODY

INTRODUCTION: A process to engage/activate student learning, interest and prior knowledge. This activity and instruction relate the experiences of the students to the objectives of the lesson. An “Instructional Set” may include a motivational device, connection to prior learning and real life experiences, relevance to future learning, stated connection to instructional objective and academic standards or the essential questions to be addressed in lesson.

TEACHING PROCEDURES: The step-by-step process/procedure for teaching information, concepts and skills identified in the instructional objectives. Must include:

*Description of Method(s) Used to Present Subject Matter - Explicitly and sequentially describe how you will teach/present the lesson’s concepts to your students and the multiple approaches you will use. Include the learning activities, processes, procedures and or strategies that support the lesson.

*Guided Practice - Explicitly and sequentially describe the opportunities provided to students for practice and application of skills under direct teacher supervision. This may involve modeling, use of prompt hierarchies and use of key discussion questions to stimulate thought and provoke inquiry.

*Independent Practice - Explicitly and sequentially describe the opportunities provided to students to practice and apply skills independently. This provides a platform for formative assessment practices and connection to lesson objectives.

CLOSURE: A process designed to bring a lesson presentation to an appropriate conclusion. Used to help students bring things together in their own minds, to use, apply and extend what has just been taught. The lesson summary includes a review of central lesson concepts and/or essential questions, a preview of future learning, an application to daily living or an expansion/extension of concept.
III. LESSON ESSENTIALS

DIFFERENTIATED LEARNING ACTIVITIES: Specific activities designed to provide for the instructional needs of ALL students (e.g., learning profile, ethnicity, ability, gender). Learning profiles can include student interests, readiness, and learning styles.

Instruction should be differentiated through: 1) content, 2) process, 3) product, and/or 4) learning environment. Describe how differentiation meets the learning needs of students in your classroom and research-based strategies utilized to optimize learning.

Additional individualized strategies as mandated by IEPs and 504 plans include:

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES, MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGY: List all materials, resources and technology utilized in the instruction of a lesson.

IV. POST-LESSON REFLECTION:

ANALYSIS OF STUDENT LEARNING: Review of data and documented evidence of lesson results as related to instructional objectives or standards.

ANALYSIS OF TEACHING: Include modifications/recommendations of current instruction for future application on 1) planning and preparation, 2) classroom environment, 3) instruction, and 4) professional responsibilities as related to instructional objectives or standards.

Elements of a Performance Objective

A performance objective includes:

1. the conditions under which measurement will occur
2. the actual behavior
3. the measurement standard or criterion

The conditions element lists the specific circumstance(s) or situation(s) in which the student will perform. Examples of condition categories include time, materials, environmental setting, manner of assistance, etc.

The behavioral element is usually an action word which delineates what the target is expected to do. The clarity of the objective is to a great degree dependent upon the specificity of this word. Verbs which precisely define the expected performance will be employed in well-stated objectives.

The criterion element indicates the acceptable level or standard for performance. This part of the objective clearly states the level of performance which the teacher expects. This is an important part of the objective because it defines the minimum expected achievement. The learning objective now has magnitude, in addition to directionality.

Table I provides explicit illustrations of each element.

Guidelines for Student Teacher Evaluation

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name of Cooperating Teacher</th>
<th>Name of Student/Semester</th>

</thead>

The purpose of this evaluation form is to help guide the student teacher in understanding his/her specific strengths and weaknesses. If completed with this objective in mind, the student teacher, cooperating teacher, and college supervisor should be able to plan sequential steps that guide the student teacher in continuous professional growth throughout the experience. A special time should be set aside, at the discretion of the cooperating teacher, at the conclusion of the third week, sixth week, and prior to the termination of each student teaching assignment. During these conferences, the student teacher should have access to the completed evaluation form as the cooperating teacher discusses various competency areas. The cooperating teacher should keep in mind the importance of evaluation of each item in specific terms rather than using broad generalizations. By following this procedure, the cooperating teacher can give specific suggestions for improvement; consequently, the student teacher will also know exactly what is expected related to his/her future performance. Student teacher evaluation, however, should be continuous and should not be exclusive to these conferences.

It is understood that a student teacher may not have had the opportunity to develop certain competencies during the first or second evaluation periods. Furthermore, a few competencies may not be measurable in a given classroom. If either situation should occur, please indicate by placing N/A (not applicable) in the appropriate category. The student teacher is not penalized for areas not scored.

Each competency should be evaluated with the following criteria in mind:

3. Distinguished - Performs task with a high degree of effectiveness; requires little or no supervision.
2. Proficient - Performance is continually improving; still requires general direction in this area to maintain effectiveness.
1. Basic - Requires direction and/or demonstration from co-op and supervisor to maintain effectiveness.
0. Unsatisfactory - Specific direction and supervision does not alter unsatisfactory performance and ability to make changes; performance is inadequate to recommend for teaching.

GUIDELINES FOR RECORDING VIDEO

The following guidelines should be considered when recording video:

1. To honor students’ rights to confidentiality most schools require parents to give written permission for students to be videotaped or photographed. Many schools have a blanket permission form completed at the beginning of each year that allows videotaping, but some do not and will require that you obtain parental permission prior to recording. It is essential that you discuss permission procedures with your cooperating teacher well in advance of any schedule recording to have sufficient time for this process if it is necessary to obtain permissions.

2. If certain parents refuse permission, or you do not receive permission, talk with the cooperating teacher about the acceptability of positioning the camera in a way that this child(ren) does not appear on the tape.

3. You are responsible for providing your own videos and video camera. Practice with the camera prior to making your tape as all cameras operate differently. You should plan on the taping NOT working, and thus plan ahead.

4. Plan videotaping sessions well in advance. Taping should not be during the University Supervisor’s observation time. It is helpful to have someone in the room operating the video camera for you. If you do not have another person available, consider whether you will need a tripod, and how you will position the camera. Other considerations are: student response to having a camera in the room, length of time/length of the lesson, environmental noise levels, desired audio level, need to change camera angles if you move around, and room lighting. Please do NOT TAKE UP INSTRUCTIONAL TIME setting up your equipment. Do this in advance. You might want to make a practice tape or two so the students become used to having the camera in the room.

5. Focus on yourself rather than on the students, but remember it is helpful to see the reaction of the students to your instruction, especially if the person viewing the videotape is supposed to follow the conversation. You can evaluate your teaching effectiveness best if you are able to see yourself giving instructions and/or interacting with students.

6. Plan to record a complete lesson within a 20 to 30 minute timeframe, this will allow you to evaluate your introduction, body and conclusion.

7. If you are recording without the assistance of a helper, it is helpful to record lessons that entail limited teacher/student movement.

8. Avoid placing the camera in high traffic areas where it might be bumped or knocked over. Avoid: doors (in front of, or behind), bathrooms, hallways, positioning near pencil sharpeners or water fountains.

9. Be conscious of the lighting in the room. Shooting footage with a window in the background creates a “backlight” and darkens everything in the foreground, including you and the students. It is your responsibility to check that what you are videotaping is clear and able to be critiqued by you and others.

10. Be conscious of the noise level in the classroom. Background noise from other groups working, or heavy traffic in the hallway will drown out your voice, or the responses of the students. All cameras have built in microphones, but many also have a jack to take an external microphone.

11. Consider the instructions you will give your students about the recording process. Students may find initial recording distracting, so determine how to address this. Be sure to emphasize that the camera is fragile and expensive, and determine who may touch the camera and for what reason.

12. LAST BUT NOT LEAST.... Be sure to turn the camera ON and confirm that it is recording prior to beginning your lesson. Oh, and the main purpose of these videotaped sessions is for you to: view your own video, after teaching the lesson, and submit your self-critique using forms T and U both.

--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

VIDEO DUE DATES: - Please plan in advance!!!
1st-Friday of week 4
2nd-Friday of week 6
3rd-Friday of week 8
4th-Friday of week 11
5th-Friday of week 14

The dates are scheduled now because it is important that you plan ahead. If equipment does not work, it is your responsibility to have allowed enough days/time to be able to reschedule that session for videotaping or choose a different student/video session.
