MAJOR IN ANTHROPOLOGY (Revised Fall 2009)
36 Credit Hours

I. REQUIRED COURSES: 18 Credits
   ___ 3 46.200 Principles of Cultural Anthropology
   ___ 3 46.210 Prehistoric Archaeology
   ___ 3 46.220 Human Origins
   ___ 3 46.470 History of Anthropological Thought and Theory
   ___ 3 (Practicum) Either: 46.301, 46.466, 46.475, 46.497 - minimally 3 credits
   ___ 3 46.385 Anthropology Research & Writing Skills

18 required credits

II. ELECTIVES: 18 CREDITS. At least 6 credit hours (2 courses) each in a. and b.
Please note: Field Archaeology (46.301) and Internships (46.497) may be taken for 6 credits or greater. If this is the case, three of the credits can be applied to Section I required courses and the remaining credits applied to appropriate Section II electives.
   a. Archaeology & Biological Anthropology:
      ___ 46.221 Forensic Anthropology
      ___ 46.250 Neanderthals
      ___ 46.290 Race and Racism
      ___ 46.300 Arch. Methods & Theory
      ___ 46.301 Field Archaeology
      ___ 46.310 Aztecs and Mayans
      ___ 46.311 Arch. N.E. North America
      ___ 46.312 South American Archaeology
      ___ 46.405 Primates
      a. or b.: ___ 46.240 Native North America
                   ___ 46.240 Men & Women
                   ___ 46.460 Applied Anthro.
                   ___ 46.466 Independent Study
                   ___ 46.495 Special Topics in Anthro.
                   ___ 46.497 Internship in Anthro.
   b. Cultural Anthropology:
      ___ 46.102 Anthro & World Problems
      ___ 46.320 Contemp. World Culture
      ___ 46.330 Peoples of Subsaharan Africa
      ___ 46.333 Ethnic Identity in the U.S.
      ___ 46.350 Medical Anthropology
      ___ 46.360 Pseudoscience
      ___ 46.370 Indig. Cult. Mod. Mexico
      ___ 46.390 Socialization of the Child
      ___ 46.440 Languages and Cultures
      ___ 46.450 Peoples & Cult. S. America
      ___ 46.475 Field Meth. in Cultur. Anth.
      ___ 46.480 Religion & Magic

These six courses can be applied to either category, depending on the topic studied.

III. MAJORS considering graduate school should schedule 6 hours of a foreign language and obtain computer literacy.