At a glance

Bloomsburg’s 282-acre campus includes 54 buildings in two sections about a quarter mile apart. Most instructional facilities, residence halls and student services are on lower campus. Student apartments and athletic facilities are located on upper campus. The campus is on the northeastern edge of the Town of Bloomsburg, a short walk from an 80-store business district. A community hospital is adjacent to the campus and major chain stores and a mall are nearby. The campus is located a mile south of Exit 236, Interstate 80.
