

International Baccalaureate Diploma Program (IB)

Bloomsburg University accepts credits from the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program (IB). Official IB transcripts must be sent to Bloomsburg University, Office of Admissions. Upon receipt of verification of a score of 5 or higher in any subject/course Bloomsburg University will award equivalent college credit in that subject for 3 transfer credits.

IB is an academically challenging and balanced program of education with final examinations that prepares students, aged 16 to 19, for success at university and life beyond. It has been designed to address the intellectual, social, emotional and physical well-being of students.

IB Diploma Program students must choose one subject from each of five groups (1 to 5), ensuring breadth of knowledge and understanding in their best language, additional language(s), the social sciences, the experimental sciences and mathematics. Student may choose either an arts subject from group 6, or a second subject from groups 1 to 5.
