

TRIO Upward Bound Summer Teaching Opportunities

TRIO Upward Bound at Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania is establishing a two-year pool of temporary part-time grant funded faculty who could be called upon to teach non-credit high school level academic courses in communication skills, writing, reading, mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics, Keystone math, Keystone reading, and world languages for six-weeks in the summer.

Minimum requirements: Bachelor's degree, secondary certification in a related field, high school teaching experience, and demonstrated ability to work with diverse populations. A master's degree and previous TRIO Upward Bound teaching experience are also preferred.

Application process: Submit a cover letter, resume, contact information for three professional references, and unofficial transcripts by mail to: Director, TRIO Upward Bound Program, Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania, 400 East 2nd Street, 258 WSSC, Bloomsburg, PA 17815.

Finalists must communicate well and successfully complete an interview as judged by the department faculty.

Prior to a final offer of employment, the selected candidate will be required to submit to a background check including, but not limited to, employment verification, educational and other credential verification, Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance, and criminal background check.

Recommendation for hiring is needed from a majority of the regular, full-time faculty within the department conducting the search.
