Adjunct Pool – Department of Management

The Management Department of Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania seeks to build a pool of part-time instructors. This pool will be active during the period May 31, 2014 to May 31, 2016. Master’s or doctorate degree in appropriate business field is required. Courses to be taught may include, but are not limited to, the following: Principles of Management, Managerial Communications, Labor and Industrial Relations, International Management, Human Resource Management, Compensation Management, and related courses. Related business experience is preferred, as is a demonstrated ability to work with diverse populations.

Finalists must successfully complete an interview process and/or teaching demonstration as judged by the department faculty. Recommendation for hiring is needed by the majority of the regular, full-time department faculty.

Interested applicants should submit an application letter, curriculum vitae, unofficial copies of all transcripts, recent student evaluations (if available), examples of any scholarly work, and three letters of professional references to:

Dr. Lam Nguyen, Co-Chair
Department of Management and Marketing Search and Screen Committee
Bloomsburg University of PA
400 East Second Street
Bloomsburg, PA 17815
or electronically to lnguyen@bloomu.edu

Prior to a final offer of employment the selected candidate will be required to submit to a background check including, but not limited to, employment verification, educational and credential verification, Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance and criminal background.

Completion of these searches are contingent upon available funding.

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania encourages applications from historically underrepresented individuals, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities and is an AA/EOE Employer.
