

Minor in Creative Writing

(administered by the English Department)

The Minor in Creative Writing consists of 18 credit hours with these requirements:

- English 204 – Introduction to Creative Writing (3 credits)

*Any two of the following pairs (4 courses – 12 credits):

- English 260 – Literary Non-Fiction
then
- English 302 – Non-Fiction Writing Workshop

- English 274 – Short Story
then
- English 301 – Fiction Writing Workshop

- English 280 – Poetry
then
- English 303 – Poetry Writing Workshop

- Theatre 102 – Introduction to Theatre
then
- Theatre 340 – Scriptwriting

Any one of the following (3 credits):

- English 316 – The Practice of Creative Writing
- English 404 – Creative Writing Seminar
- **Any 300 or 400 English Literature course
- Any 300 or 400 English Linguistics course

*To take a 300-level Creative Writing Workshop course, students must first complete the related literature course. For example, students need to take English 274 – Short Story before taking English 301 – Fiction Writing Workshop. While it is not a prerequisite in the Theatre Arts B.A., those who wish to count Theatre 340 toward the Creative Writing minor (or major) must first take Theatre 102.

**May require instructor permission.
