Dan Haverstock - Assistant Dean of Students for Student Assistance

I can help you with any situation that negatively affects either your academic success or holistic growth. These situations include but are not limited to:

- Mental Health Struggles
- Roommate Issues
- Relationship Issues
- Family challenges
- Difficult transitions
- Academic struggles
- Death of a loved one
- Class absences
- Homesickness

Here are some of the types of methods I use to help:

- Referrals
- Weekly/Monthly meetings
- Finding campus resources
- Finding counseling
- Helping get involved
- Providing alternative perspectives
- Explaining University processes
- Maximizing time management
- Finding a Major
- Establishing support networks
The CARE (Behavioral Intervention) team responds to students who exhibit erratic, disruptive, disturbing, or troubling behavior. When a student of concern is referred to the CARE team, members of the team work together to provide cross-departmental assistance and support. These members include:

Donald W. Young - Assistant Vice President and Dean of Students
Amy Cunningham - Director of Residence Education and Student Engagement
Kathleen Heitzman - Associate Director of Athletics
Suzanna Sherlinski - Nurse Supervisor, Health Center
Danial Haverstock - Assistant Dean of Students for Student Assistance
Joseph Wondoloski - Assistant Director of University Police
Dr. Mark Bauman - Faculty Member
Counselor - Center for Counseling and Human Development
