

Minor in History (HISTORY)

Department of History, College of Liberal Arts

Effective Fall 2014

This program requires 18 semester hours of history courses with at least 9 semester hours in 300 or 400 level courses. The Department advises that students take the two 100 level history courses before taking 300 or 400 level history courses for the minor.

The minor includes:

Two 100 level history courses – 6 credits

One 200 or 300 level history course – 3 credits

Three 300 or 400 level history courses – 9 credits

The program for the history minor provides the following features: two courses at the 100 level that are basic to the study of history; flexibility in framing a minor pertinent to the student's academic interest; and at least three courses at an advanced level.
